Consent for Research

Consent to participate in research to help improve the course.

Protocol Director: Charles Eesley

Protocol Title:

Using MOOC Data to Optimize Team-Based, Experiential Instruction: The Effects of Mentoring in Entrepreneurship Education

DESCRIPTION: You are invited to participate in a research study on how MOOCs can improve student learning. We are asking you to take part because you signed up to take a course at NovoEd. Please read this form carefully and ask any questions you may have before agreeing to take part in the study. You will be asked to complete a short survey.

TIME INVOLVEMENT: Your participation will take approximately one hour.

RISKS AND BENEFITS: The risks associated with this study are none. The benefits which may reasonably be expected to result from this study are a better understanding of entrepreneurship education. We cannot and do not guarantee or promise that you will receive any benefits from this study. Your decision whether or not to participate in this study will not affect your grade in this course. The records of this study will be kept private. In any sort of report we make public we will not include any information that will make it possible to identify you. Research records will be kept in a locked file; only the researchers will have access to the records.

PAYMENTS: You will receive no payment for your participation.

PARTICIPANT'S RIGHTS: If you have read this form and have decided to participate in this project, please understand your participation is voluntary and you have the right to withdraw your consent or discontinue participation at any time without penalty or loss of benefits to which you are otherwise entitled. The alternative is not to participate. You have the right to refuse to answer particular questions. The results of this research study may be presented at scientific or professional meetings or published in scientific journals. You can email us direct at cee@stanford.edu if you wish not to participate. The decision to participate will not affect your grade in the class in any way
