Mentorship

How did you meet your mentor

We contacted several mentors through the site, based on proximity. I also met with a man who is in my networking group - outside of NovoEd.

1. Consider the skills\experience you wish you had on your team.
2. Use your family and friends - tell them what you are looking for...
3. It doesn't hurt to ask. People like helping people.
4. Consider how someone fits based on their personality/experience - don't just choose someone for money/power.
5. Setup a review process. Do not make a long term commitment without a trial. For example, don't let someone else take over your idea because they donate a lot of money. Protect your vision.
